Sirius Account Executive Mike LaLonde Announced Winner of 2009 Nashville Emerging Leaders Award

Nashville, TN – September 3, 2009 – The Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce and YP Nashville have announced the 2009 winners of the Nashville Emerging Leader Awards. The awards are divided into 14 career categories and highlight the contributions of young professionals. Mike LaLonde, an Account Executive with Sirius Computer Solutions, received the award in the Technology category.

“The single biggest thing that sets Mike apart from the crowd is his dedication to our clients’ success,” said Keith Rutledge, Area Sales Manager for Sirius. “He’s certified in technology products from our strategic partners, including IBM, Oracle and NetApp, and he supports companies across Tennessee including Nashville, Memphis, Knoxville and Chattanooga.”

Mike joined Sirius in 2005 and built a new market in Tennessee for IBM’s largest solution provider. For the past three years, Mike has established Sirius as one of the top IBM solution providers and overall IT consulting firms in Tennessee. In addition to Mike’s skills and certifications in IBM, Oracle, NetApp, Cisco and VMware technologies, he has both Product Specialists and Consultants that help support his clients in areas such as IT business efficiencies, IT optimization and virtualization solutions, data storage and management, data center design, disaster recovery solutions and infrastructure security practices.

Mike serves on the boards of the Catholic Business League, Camp Marymount and the Tennessee InfoSec Conference Planning Committee. He is a member of the Nashville Technology Council, the Middle Tennessee Information Systems Security Association, and he served three years as a program director for the Nashville Cathedral of Knights of Columbus.
