Sirius Computer Solutions Receives Two Awards for North American Business Partner Excellence and Business Leadership

San Antonio, TX – June 1, 2010 – Sirius Computer Solutions, a national technology solutions provider and IBM Premier Business Partner, was recognized with the IBM Business Leadership Award for the thirteenth consecutive year, as well as the IBM North America Business Partner Excellence Award for 2009.

“Our partnership with IBM continues to drive the strategic solutions we provide to our clients,” said Joe Mertens, Sirius president. “Our investments in IBM product skills, full participation in IBM programs, and strategic assistance in initiatives like Dynamic Infrastructure speak directly to the commitment we have to IBM products, IBM people and IBM clients. IBM solutions continue to play a leading role in solving today’s most challenging IT and business issues, giving Sirius professionals the tools we need to provide solutions for consolidation and virtualization, high availability, commerce, security, ISV infrastructure and data center networking—the strategic projects that our clients are investing in as the economy shows signs of rebound.”

The Business Leadership Award recognizes partners that contribute to IBM business results, invest in certifications and skills around IBM products, realize high client satisfaction as measured by independent assessment, and commit to the entire breadth of the IBM product portfolio.

The Business Partner Excellence Award rewards partners that offer unique solutions integrating hardware, software and services, and provide tangible, near-term ROI and client satisfaction. Business Partners receiving this award must be an IBM Premier Business Partner that achieves year-to-year revenue growth; shows loyalty to IBM and full participation in a broad array of strategic IBM initiatives and IBM brands; has excellent client satisfaction; and teams with other IBM Business Partners.

“The IBM North American Business Partner Leadership Awards recognize excellence in pursuit of growth, innovation, and the creation of unique client value through our combined capabilities, expertise and solutions,” said Ayman Antoun, Vice President, Business Partners & Mid Market, North America. “It’s a privilege to honor our winning business partners for their outstanding performance and ongoing commitment to client success.”

Sirius has a national team of certified product specialists, account executives and consultants to ensure its clients get the most expert advice, service and support across the IBM product lines.
